

BLUE CROSS TO HANDLE HOSPITALIZATION

Rates Are Same, Benefits Wider Under New Firm

Conversion Privileges Offered; Deduction Cards Out This Week

With no increase in cost to employees but presenting several advantages in benefits not now provided, the hospitalization and surgical insurance for Y-12ers and all other Union Carbide Nuclear Company personnel in Oak Ridge will be handled under the Blue Cross and Blue Shield beginning October 1. The Blue Cross and Blue Shield coverage is provided by the Tennessee Hospital Service Association, of Chattanooga, which is the insurer for the American Hospital Association, owners of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield names.

The cost to Y-12 employees for the Blue Cross and Blue Shield coverage will remain at $1.25 per month for protection of employee alone and $4.60 for family coverage, including spouse and dependent children.

New payroll deduction cards for the Blue Cross are being distributed throughout Y-12 this week. Present participants in the hospitalization and surgical insurance service under the Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. must sign a card if they wish to continue the coverage under the Blue Cross system. Employees on the payroll on October 1, but who are not covered by Connecticut General, may obtain the coverage with full protection throughout October if they sign before the end of the month.

New employees hired during October may apply for the Blue Cross coverage as soon as hired with the coverage beginning on the date of signing the application and deduction cards. The normal waiting period of two months for a new employee before becoming eligible for the coverage is being waived during October.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield representatives last week explained the advantages of the new coverage, with one of the most important being the privilege of converting to a standard policy after retirement or resignation. In such cases the coverage is shifted from the Union Carbide Nuclear Company contract to the regular standard contract of the Blue Cross. The same privilege is offered dependents of deceased employees who had the insurance during their lifetime. Other new benefits cover certain unusual pregnancy cases not covered by the old contract.

Another feature of the Blue Cross plan will be the issuance of identification cards to all Y-12ers who elect to be covered under the new system. These cards bear the number of the individual's contract with the Blue Cross organization and also the badge number of the employee. This facilitates admission to hospitals or to obtain medical treatment as the Blue Cross card is immediate identification.

Y-12ers desiring more information on details of the Blue Cross coverage are asked to communicate with the Insurance Department, Bldg. 9704-2, telephone 7382.

CHARLES PIERCE SPIRES LOLLS on the handsome chaise lounge and holds some boat cushions and a fine outfit of hunting clothes given him as retirement gifts last week by fellow employees of the General Utilities Department. He retires September 30. Ray Mann, Department Head, who presented the gifts, is second from right in front row wearing dark necktie.

Two September 30 Retirees From Y-12 Post Almost 27 Years Of Company Service Credit

C. P. Spires and J. T. Firestone Leaving Next Week After Work In General Utilities And Machine Shop.

Two Y-12ers with almost 27 years of Company Service Credit between them, will join the retired list next Monday, September 30. They are:

Charles Pierce Spires, Service Operator Assistant in the General Utilities Department, who came to work in Y-12 on November 22, 1943.

James Talmadge Firestone, Foreman in the General Machine Shop, who was employed in Y-12 on March 1, 1944.

They are the 10th and 11th Y-12ers to retire this year and bring the total of retirees in Y-12 since Union Carbide took over operations here on May 4, 1947, to 35.

'Uncle Charley' Spires Plans Hunting, Fishing

A life of ease around his Knoxville home on Woodlawn Ave. with his wife, Mrs. May Spires, is the immediate hope of Charles Pierce Spires after his retirement. Also an avid outdoor sportsman, particularly in the fields of fishing and hunting, he probably will be found frequently afield with a shotgun or fishing rod in his hand.

Born In Grainger County

"Uncle Charley" Spires is a native East Tennessean, being born at Tate Springs up in Grainger County, and has lived practically all his life in this area. He went to grade school at the Mary's Chapel School in his native county.

His previous work before coming to Y-12 consisted of considerable farming and also working with ice and coal companies in the Knoxville area as a maintenance engineer.

With Ray Mann, Department Head of the General Utilities Operations, presiding at a farewell ceremony, fellow employees surprised "Uncle Charley" with a collection of gifts. The first brought out was a pair of boat cushions, then came a hunting and fishing outfit consisting of a heavy jacket and trousers. Then as a climax, a handsome chaise lounge was rolled in the conference room of Bldg. 9764, where the farewell meeting was held.

Firestone Hopes To Live To Be 102 Years Old

Although retiring from Carbide next week, James Talmadge Firestone has no intention of "just sitting down for the rest of my life." Right after leaving Y-12 he will become a salesman for Oak Ridge Motors.

The colorful Shopper was born in Oklahoma City, Okla., and received elementary school and high school education in St. Louis, Mo. Before coming to Y-12 his business career included owning and operating a filling station at Elizabethton, Tenn., machinist for firms in Bristol, Tenn., and other points; and as an insurance salesman in Chattanooga.

Was Regular Army Colonel

He had a regular United States Army career of 23 years, joining up in 1908 and remaining in service until 1931. He advanced through the ranks to the post of colonel and served overseas with the 30th (Old Hickory) Division during World War I.

When he first came to Y-12, Firestone was assigned to the General Machine Shop, later being transferred to the Chemical Division in 1948. He was returned to the General Machine Shop in 1952, remaining there until the present.

Popular with his fellow employees, Firestone was bid farewell by a big group last week when he was presented a power saw as a going-away gift. The

Rites For Kenneth B. Baker Attended By Y-12 Friends

Several former fellow employees and friends from the Y-12 General Machine Shop attended funeral services last Thursday morning for Kenneth Bledsoe Baker, 52, who died Monday, September 16, at Oak Ridge Hospital. Gerald Lankford, W. D. Cunningham and H. G. Jenkins, all Y-12ers, were among the pallbearers. Services were held at the Martin Funeral Home chapel with interment in Oak Ridge Memorial Park cemetery.

The former Y-12er was a foreman in the General Machine Shop and came to work on March 26, 1945. He was born July 31, 1905, in Causey, Ky.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ann Marie Baker; two sons, Kenneth Donald Baker, United States Navy, San Diego, Cal., who returned for the funeral, and Charles Dean Baker, Oak Ridge; and two daughters, Misses Dorothy Ann Baker and June Baker, also of Oak Ridge. His parents, six brothers and a sister also survive.

Fire Prevention Week To Be Stressed Here

Hunt For Hazards Set To Eliminate Danger

With the slogan "Don't Give Fire A Place To Start," Y-12ers will pitch in during Fire Prevention Week, October 6-12, in a rigorous campaign to rid the plant of any possible fire and accident hazards, wherever found. Although fire and accident prevention are stressed throughout the year in the Y-12 Plant Area, the annual observance of Fire Prevention Week provides the opportunity for a little extra effort that might mean the difference between danger and safety, damage and lack of property loss.

Fire Department To Coordinate

The Fire Department will coordinate the Fire Prevention Week campaign with divisional, departmental and group fire and safety committees throughout the plant. Before and after inspections will be made to seek out any lurking hazards and to see that they are eliminated and the cooperation of every Y-12er is urged to make the move successful. Fire Prevention will be stressed at safety meetings before and during Fire Prevention Week.

Not only will Fire Prevention Week principles be stressed in the plant, but also every Y-12er is urged to check his own home to see that fire is not given a chance to start. The same thorough cleanup planned for the plant to remove all trash and rubbish should be made in every home—as fire hazards are found as frequently in dwellings as in industrial plants—even more so.

Make Plant Cleaner, Safer

Y-12ers have long prided themselves on making the plant a cleaner and safer place in which to work—so a thorough job in observance of Fire Prevention Week can insure that the premises will remain in that condition.

LIFETIME EARNINGS CITED

The lifetime earnings of the elementary school graduate will be $116,000, the average high school graduate $165,000 and the average college graduate $268,000, a recent survey reveals.

Eight-Year Scoring Record Broken By Wolves Bowlers

Several Seasonal High Marks Posted In Loop; New Pin Spotter Credited For Boosted Figures

An eight-year-old scoring record was broken last Thursday night by the Wolves team in the Classic League of Y-12 bowlers when the group racked up a 3164 handicap series as it took three points from the Swingsters. As matters turned out—the Wolves needed to really howl for their victory, as the losing team itself rolled a 2531 scratch score in defeat, with the Wolves tallying 2735 before handicap.

Pins Placed In Proper Position

Exceptionally high scores have been posted all this young season by the Classic League pinmen at the Oak Terrace Alleys. Much of the high scoring is attributed to the new mechanical pin spotter just placed in service this season. This massive machinery places each pin in just the prescribed position, an advantage to all better bowlers.

Although the feat of the Wolves features the alley activities last Thursday, the Rippers and Rebels maintained their neck-and-neck race for first place, each turning in whitewash victories of four points over the Screwballs and Wasps, respectively. The All Stars and Bumpers turned in three-point wins over the Cubs and Playboys and the Tigers and Has Beens split even.

Wolves Monopolize Scoring Leads

The Wolves monopolized practically all of the individual and team scoring honors for the night. In team marks, the Wolves swept the boards with a 961 scratch game, boosted to 1104 with handicap. Then their 2735 scratch and 3164 handicap series completed the cycle. All were high marks for the season. Frank Gragg, team captain of the Wolves, had a 216 scratch and 240 handicap single game score and George Cantrell, another Wolf, a 685 handicap series. Hubert Tripp, of the Rippers, managed to get into the scoring leadership act with a fine 588 scratch series, also tops for the season.

League standing follows:

Rippers	10	2
Rebels	9	3
All Stars	7	5
Wolves	7	5
Has Beens	6½	5½
Screwballs	6	6

The Wildcats will take to the road for the first time next week when they journey to Johnson City to meet the strong Hilltoppers on their home grounds.

HOW LOVE GOT THAT WAY —IN TERMS OF TENNIS

A lot of wisecracks and aspersions have been cast on the terms used in tennis scoring—particularly that mention of "love." Well, it seems that it started with the mispronunciation of the French words "l'oeuf," meaning the egg, which in turn is the vernacular for zero.

Cubs Take Two From Rebel Team; To Meet Reactors

At long last, the second half championship in the Y-12 Plant Softball League was settled last Saturday morning when the ram-paging Cubs took a twin bill from the Rebels by 6 to 5 and 12 to 6. The Rebels now will meet the Reactors, first half titlists, in a two out of three "World Series" series for the 1957 crown.

The first tilt in that double-header was a dilly for two rounds, but the Cubs broke loose in the third with five runs and were never headed. In the second scrap the victors started out fast for an easy triumph.

Line scores follow:

Team	R	H	E
Rebels	000	002	3-5 5 2

Clippers Capture Mixed League Lead

The Clippers clopped right in front of the Mixed League of Y-12 male and female bowlers last week by whitewashing the Pin Cats for four points while the Scrappers, previously in last place, whacked the Units for three points. The Units had been tied for first place with the Clippers. In the other tilt of the night the Alley Cats clawed four points out of the hides of the Nip and Tucks.

G. B. Anderson, of the Clippers, had best scratch honors of the night with a 197 game and 514 series. Charley Gillihan, rolling for the Alley Cats, posted a 243 handicap game and 625 series for tops. In the women's rivalry Evelyn Tucker, Nip and Tucks, had the best scratch game of 169; Louise Eubanks, Alley Cats, 215 handicap game; Joyce Powers, Clippers, 411 scratch series; and Shirley Brown, Units, 581 handicap series.

The Clippers swept across the board in team scoring honors with 585-798, 1766 and 2257.

Ike's Birthday Is Among Notable Anniversaries In October, First Series Broadcast And Market Crash Occurred In Month

Next comes the month of October—the month when the Great Artist paints the trees and foliage in gay colors, the month of Halloween, football classics and fall parties. October also contains the several interesting birthdays and historical anniversaries and observances of some special weeks of note.

Back in the days of old Rome—several attempts were made to change the name of October. The Romans changed it four times—to Germanicus, Antoninus, Faustinus and Hercules. The names were to honor Gen. Germanus Caesar, Emperor Antoninus Pius, the emperor's wife, Faustinus; and another emperor, Commodus, who considered himself the Roman Hercules. However, none of the changes stuck.

Here are some of the noted anniversary dates in October:

October 5, 1921—The first radio broadcast of World Series baseball games was made by the late noted sportswriter, Grantland Rice.

October 7, 1916—The worst defeat in college football was suffered by little Cumberland University, of Lebanon, Tenn., crushed by mighty Georgia Tech to the tune of 222 to 0.

October 14, 1890 — Dwight D. Eisenhower, 33rd President of the United States and World War II

Allied commander, was born in Denison, Tex.

October 22, 1836 — Gen. Sam Houston, an emigrant from Tennessee and hero of the Battle of San Jacinto, was sworn in as the first president of the Republic of Texas.

October 29, 1929—The bottom fell out of the stock market, leading to the depression of the 30's and the collapse of many fortunes.

Some of the numerous "weeks" to be observed during October include Fire Prevention Week, October 6-12; National Bible Week, October 14-20; and United Nations Week, October 20-27.

The flower of the month is the pompon (always popular at football games) with the birthstones being either the opal or the tourmaline.

presentation was made by Department Superintendent Ernie Watkins.

Something To Keep Him Busy

Superintendent Watkins told Firestone the present was "just something to keep you busy" around the home, recalling that the soon to be retired Y-12er seemed continually "on the run" in his work around the department. The department superintendent said he voiced the opinion of the entire group in saying they enjoyed working with Firestone and Watkins added that he personally appreciated the extra work done over regular work assignments by Firestone.

Acknowledging the gift with appreciation, Firestone told his fellow employees.

"I consider it an honor and pleasure to have worked with you men. I don't intend to quit working at something, and, the Lord willing, I hope to live to be 102 years old. You see, my father was 101 years, six months and 19 days old when he died."

Meanwhile, prospects are he will be putting his power saw to work in odd jobs around his home in Loudon with his wife, Mrs. Frances Long Firestone, and two charming daughters, Mary Margaret, 9, and Lovdie Dustin, 8.

as he recited the history of his employment in Y-12 for almost 14 years, beginning back in the early days of the plant. Spires has earned the respect and friendship of every man in the department by his conscientious attention to his job with one and all "hating to see him leave."

"I deeply appreciate all the nice things you folks have said and the presents," "Uncle Charley" responded. "I sure am going to use all of them—for I love to go bird hunting and fishing and when I get home I will use this lounge to watch television."

Among his immediate plans after retirement is a trip to Springfield, Ill., to visit a brother there.
